A Great Victory

A Terrible Case of Scrofula

Cured by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

In the winter of 1881 I was attacked with Scrofula in one of the most aggravating forms.

At one time I had no less than thirteen large abscesses over and around my neck and throat, continually exuding an offensive mass of bloody matter disgusting to behold, and almost intolerable to endure. It is impossible to fully describe my sufferings, as the case was complicated with Chronic Catarrh. After three years of misery, having been treated by three physicians, I was worse than ever.

Finally, on the recommendation of W. J.

Huntley, druggist of Lockport, I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. And now, after twelve months, the scrofulous eruptions have entirely disappeared, and the abscesses have disappeared, except the unsightly scars, which are daily becoming smaller by degrees, and beautifully less. I do not know what it may have done for others, but I know that in my case, Hood's Sarsaparilla has proved an effective specific indeed. As an evidence of my gratitude I send these facts unsolicited, and I am ready to verify the authenticity of this cure, by personal correspondence with any one who doubts it. CHARLES A. ROBERTS,

East Wilson, N. Y.

This statement is confirmed by W. J. Huntley, druggist of Lockport, N. Y., who calls the cure a great victory for Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Send for book giving statements of many cures.

MURDERED BY THE CZAR.

COUNT REUTERN KILLED WHILE AD-JUSTING HIS UNIFORM.

The Russian Autocrat Runs Him Through the Body with a Saber—The Czar a Mental and Physical Wreck—Loss of a British Dispatch Boat—Flashes from the Cable.

LONDON, Oct. 23.—Count Reutern, adjutant and aide in the royal palace at St. Petersburg, was run through the body with a saber and killed by the czar Thursday. He was awaiting his master, and the room being warm, had loosened his tunic. Surprised by the sudden and unexpected return of the czar he was hesitating, in some confusion and embarrassment, to button his tunic to save the grave breach of discipline of appearing in disordered dress before the emperor, when the latter, supposing him to be searching for a weapon, drew his saber with fatal effect.
The czar was greatly affected when he discovered the mistake he had made, and, following the first rumors that the czar had been killed, he cracked, came that of his violent insanity.

The last mentioned report was rendered more plausible by the recently developed fact that the czar has been long a serious physical sufferer, coupled with the state of alarm and apprehension in which he is known to live of attacks from Nihilists, who are feared to exist in every fresh arrival about the royal person. His physical ailments, about which he is very sensitive, were first noticed five years ago, when he began to suffer from heart disease, epileptic attacks, and rheumatism. The only physician who has treated the czar to tell the truth was Professor Hoffman, who thereupon was made the victim of the Russian rage of the czar, and has since been banished. The patient's symptoms have gradually increased in severity, and he is now suffering from a complication of the foregoing.

counted. The company's assets, however, are valued at £168,800. The unsecured cred-

The Dispatch Boat Imogene Wrecked.
LONDON, Oct. 23.—The British dispatch head, on the coast of Asia Minor, in the proceeding from Constantinople to Salonica, whence she was to convey Sir William White, the newly appointed British minister to Turkey, to Constantinople. The crew were saved. The Imogene is an iron yacht of 48 tons.

Boycotting the British.
LONDON, Oct. 23.—The governor of Can-dahar has ordered that merchants shall not shall not work in the British camp. The Hill tribes have refused to continue the payment of tribute to the amir.

Made a Demand on England.

the court of St. James, has demanded of England that a definite date be fixed for the evacuation of Egypt.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—Judge Frederick E. Fry yesterday ordered an attachment to be is-

About six other of the alleged delinquent election judges were in court in response to citations issued Thursday, but they were allowed to go on complying with the law in returning the registration books and undertaking to attend strictly to their duties hereafter.

A Strike at Racine, Wis.
RACINE, Wis., Oct. 23.—The entire force of employees of the Racine Wagon and Carriage company, over 200 persons, struck Thursday noon because of the removal of John Beck, assistant foreman of the driving gang, and the substitution of August Trull in his place. Beck and Trull were Knights of Labor. Trull has been expelled from the order for taking Beck's place. The company says it was never in a better condi-

JAY GOULD IN MEMPHIS.
His Reception by the Citizens—His Famous Telegram of 1870.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 23.—Jay Gould visited this city Thursday. He appeared on the scene in the afternoon, when he was formally introduced by Judge R. J. Morgan. Mr. Gould replied to the visit, afforded great pleasure in meeting so many of the leading citizens of Memphis, and heaped the friendly spirit that had been shown him during his brief visit would be continued in the future.

Mr. Gould would soon be one of the terminal points of his railroad system. President David P. Hadden, in response to calls, spoke of Mr. Gould's charity, which was extended to Memphis during the yellow fever epidemic of 1879, when he sent twelve famous telegrams which, in honor to the distinguished visitor was emblazoned upon the black-board of the exchange, and which reads as follows:

NEW YORK, Sept. 5, 1879.—To W. J.
SMITH, ATTORNEY AT LAW OF THE HOWARD ASSOCIATION, MEMPHIS.—I send you by telegraph $5,000 to aid the Howard association, an association of people throughout the country will contribute liberally to aid your stricken city. At any rate keep on till I tell you to stop. I will foot the bill. What are your daily expenses?

JAY GOULD.
President Hadden, in behalf of the city authorities, also welcomed Mr. Gould to Memphis. At the conclusion of his remarks a general introduction followed. Mr. Gould remained about a half an hour on the floor of the exchange and returned to St. Louis at 5 p. m. on the special train which brought him here.
